THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Subversive documents and memoranda were found in the possession of three Chinese who were taken into custody by the Thai Police at a hotel in the Sam Chin district. These men, suspected of being Chinese Communist Party representatives, were: Soon Sae Tang, 31 years of age, who has been coming to Thailand since he was six and was formerly employed by the Seng Soon Lee Gold Dealer; Buk Hui, a clerk at a grocery shop in the Sampeng district; and Nguan Teck Sae Tiaw who formerly worked in a tile factory.
2. The impounded documents were the following:
 - a. A draft of protest to the Thai Government on the increase in the alien registration fee.
 - b. A list of contributions.
 - c. Memoranda regarding contact with Chinese Communists in Swatow.
 - d. Letters requesting unity among Communists.
 - e. Secret codes (not deciphered).
 - f. Portraits of deceased Communist heroes.
 - g. Photographs showing the Chinese Nationalist troops killing young students.
 - h. Notes designed to create a rift between the Thais and Americans.
3. The arrested men informed the Police that they were staying in the hotel waiting for a ship to Swatow, China. The Police believe that they were part of the underground forces presently operating in Thailand with the dual purpose of instigating a breach in the relationship between Thailand and the U.S. and of recruiting young Chinese men and women for training in China.
